PARAMENTS

Liturgical colors have an instructional purpose and point us to the life of Christ and the great acts of redemptive history.

These colored hangings, called paraments, adorn the pulpit, communion table, and baptismal font.

Green represents spiritual growth and world missions.

It is displayed during “ordinary time,” which is the period between Epiphany and Lent.

CELEBRATION of WORSHIP

The Greeting and Announcements

The Prelude

*During this time, be prayerful and reverent in preparation for the worship of our holy God in His sanctuary.
(Please silence all phones and electronic devices.)*

Nº 97

† The Call to Worship

Leader: *There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.
All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name. For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God.*

† The Prayer of Invocation

The Call to Confession

Deuteronomy 6:4–9

Leader: “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.”

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

from Streams of Mercy

Unison: Eternal, unchanging God, your kindness and boundless love are beyond all thought. But, Lord, we are not like you. Our lips may confess our devotion to you, but our hearts are slow to follow our words, and we are reluctant to obey you with our lives. We confess to you our adulterous and idolatrous hearts. We cherish many things far more than we love you, and we spend hours each day worshiping at the feet of other gods. O God, have mercy on us and forgive us for our false worship.

Holy Spirit, give us grace to hate and grieve the many moments we have spent lost in worship before our other lovers. We have turned your good gifts into false gods and have given ourselves to them. Please work in us continual repentance, turning our wandering hearts back to our perfect Savior. Teach us to love your Word, which reminds us that he has loved us and given himself for us.

Make Christ beautiful to us. Let us love him with every part of ourselves: with emotions that delight in him and long for him; with minds that are full of thoughts of him and bodies that are eager to serve him. Draw us back to the cross, where his love was poured out for the salvation of our souls. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.

The Individual Prayers of Confession

The Assurance of Pardon

1 John 3:1; 4:9–10

Leader: See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.

In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Our Worship in the World for the World

Salvation and life in union with Christ frees us to worship and work for the glory of God and the fulfillment of our created purpose. In obedience to His commission, we support the work of the church in all places and faithfully serve in the many vocations to which we have been called.

The Prayers of the People

*God calls us to be a praying people.
Let us join in prayer, offering our praise,
thanksgiving, and intercession to God.*

The Offertory

*Our offering is an act of worship in which we express our gratitude and reliance on God.
For those of you who are guests with us today, giving is not obligatory.
We are eager to share with you more about our church and its ministry and to invite you to participate with us as you are called by God.
If you have filled out a visitor's card, please place it in the plate as it is passed.*

experience the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and trust his incomparably great power for us who believe.*

*Please help us love our community by recycling your unneeded bulletins as you leave.
A recycling bin is located by the door in the narthex.*

NOTES

DISCUSSION AND APPLICATION

- ❖ What messages do you respond to right away? What makes them important enough to get your attention? If God speaks to us through His Word, what attention do you think it deserves?
- ❖ How important is God's Word to our worship of Him? Could you briefly describe what the Regulative Principle means for our worship?
- ❖ What does it mean that our worship should be simple? How does the construction of the altar support this? What do these instructions tell the people about the God they worship?
- ❖ Altars are made for making sacrifices. What is the significance of both the burnt offering and peace/fellowship offering? Why don't we make these sacrifices today?
